Local Artist Signs Record Contract

Tate Music Group is proud to announce the newest addition to its artist line-up, adult contemporary Christian praise artist Mike Pavelka. The music of Mike Pavelka definitely stood out among the countless music submissions and we are honored that he has accepted our offer to be a part of Tate Music Group.

Tate Music Group is committed to excellence in the music industry. Our staff of highly trained professionals—including music producers, graphic designers, and marketing personnel—work together with our artists to produce the very finest music product available.

Our partnership with Mike Pavelka will definitely make an impact and we are excited to see what the future of this partnership produces.

“Tate Music Group partners with its artists to provide them with the production, manufacturing, distribution and promotion they need to succeed in today's music industry.”
